SANTA CLAUS APPEARS

A Number of Sunday Schools Visited and Good Children Remembered.

PRETTY CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENTS

Mortimer's Program Rendered by the Children—The Primary Singing Class of St. Mary's—St. Luke's—Second Presbyterian—Freemason St. Baptist—Centenary.

Yesterday was a day of Christmas entertainments, Santa Claus appearing in various guises to the little folk from one end of the city to the other. Up at St. Mary's Asylum the primary singing class, consisting of some thirty-four little girls, gave a very beautiful rendering of the charming cantata, "The Message of Christmas." The stage was exquisitely decorated with ferns, potted plants, bunting and flowers. The curtain went up on a grove scene, with Santa Claus in all wonderful paraphernalia, seated in a cave of glittering ice and snow, gravely watching the graceful gyrations of a score or more little fairies in silver and white. The next scene represented a farm, and introduced to the audience a certain bad little boy, who did not believe in Santa Claus, and consequently did not get any thing in his stocking last night.

After this the little girls gave a pretty exhibition in calisthenics, and Master Robble and Miss Mollie Lawler did an amusing minstrel act, entitled "Down the Ohio." Miss Agnes Hodges officiated very cleverly as accompanist.

BREWSTER STREET MISSION.

The children of the Brewster Street Mission Sunday school, conducted by Sunshine Circle of King's Daughters, had a visit from Santa Claus about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The old gentleman distributed numerous gifts to the young people, and they were all appreciated. In this connection the ladies wish to return thanks to Mr. T. C. White, Mr. George H. Daves, Mr. Robert Johnson, and The Virginia Candy Kitchen for donations. The following programme was very interestingly rendered:

Singing, Hymn No. 190.
Recitation, "O Christmas Morning."
Recitation, "Santa Claus Secret."
Recitation, "Little Prayer."
Singing, Hymn No. 201.
Recitation, "Merry Christmas."
Recitation, "The Christmas Message."
Recitation, "To Us a Child is Born."

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN SCHOOL.

The lecture room of the Second Presbyterian church was filled with the pupils of that school when the Christmas exercises began at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The exercises were conducted by the superintendent, Mr. Edward Camp, and were very entertaining and instructive. The programme was taken from "The Advent" and was as follows:

FREEMASON STREET BAPTIST.

At Freemason Street Baptist church the infant class of the Sunday school held its celebration in its class room at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. In the centre of the room stood a large Christmas tree, upon which were hung toys and fancy decorations, making it an object of great admiration to the large number of children who were gathered there to enjoy the festival. A most delightful musical and literary programme was rendered in a manner that was not only thoroughly enjoyed by the little tots, but by a few of the older members of the school who were fortunate enough to be present. After the programme was rendered each child was presented with a box of candy and a toy. The following was the programme:

Prayer.....Class
Recitation.....Class
Recitation.....Arthur Lankford
Song, "Our Christmas Tree."
Recitation.....Blanche Gale
Recitation.....M. Guy

Recitation.....L. Knight

ST. LUKE'S EPISCOPAL.

The children of St. Luke's P. E. Sunday school held their Christmas celebration yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. They assembled in the main auditorium of the church, where the regular Christmas service was read and sung, after which the Rev. Mr. Woodson, of St. Peter's P. E. church, made an interesting address, which was greatly enjoyed by the little ones. The service finished the children, marched to the Sunday school room, where a large Christmas tree laden with boxes of candy, which resembled a toy sled. Each boy and girl was presented with one of these little novelties, after which celebration closed with a prayer offered by the Rev. A. S. Lloyd, pastor of the church.

SANTA CLAUS AT HOME.

Last night the older children of the school presented a sweet little operetta, "Santa Claus at Home," with Master Julian Guy as Santa and Miss Eva Campbell as the Fairy Queen. It is rarely a more beautiful Christmas production is witnessed than that enjoyed by the six or seven hundred people who crowded into the lecture room and heard old Santa, as a reward for diligence of the pupils of the school, give the Fairy Queen permission to bring them to his ice-bound grato, where they might see his fifteen lumps busily engaged in making toys, to be distributed later among the children. The Fairy Queen, who, by the way, crowned herself with glory, and sang like a bird, was accompanied by a score of lovely little fairies in white and silver, and bright eyes for jewels.

The operetta was preceded by brief devotional exercises, conducted by Dr. Wharton. The Doctor and his charming wife, as well as the superintendent, Mr. Winston, were handsomely remembered by the school, and each class had some pretty present for its teacher. The membership of the school numbers 536, and nearly all of them were present, each receiving a gift.

CENTRAL AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The church was packed to its utmost capacity, and the entertainment was pronounced a great success. The following programme was rendered:

Prayer.....Rev. E. E. Dudley
Hymn....."Christ is Born"
Recitation.....Ella Nelson
Drama—Arranged by Rev. E. E. Dudley.
"Christmas".....By Nine Children
Recitation.....Earl Coleman
Recitation....."Star of the East"
Recitation.....Bessie Russell
Duet.....Bessie
Maggie Hix and Bessie Russell.
Hymn....."Merry Christmas Bells"
Recitation.....Annie Bell
Recitation.....Mamie Bell
Drama.....Repeated
Recitation.....Ella Hespess
Song, "Santa Claus has Come to Town."
Hearty applause followed every effort, but it was so great after the drama that the Rev. Mr. Dudley finally consented to repeat it.

The faithful work of the committee was evidenced in the thorough preparation of the children, as well as the beautiful decorations.

The name of Mrs. Sidney B. Ironmonger deserves special mention.

Special presents were given to Rev. E. E. Dudley, the pastor; R. A. Pebworth, Sunday school superintendent; George F. Gale, Sunday school secretary; Miss Mamie Hundley, organist, and Miss Mamie Bell for bringing in the largest number of scholars during the year.

REL-ALAWAN DO RA HT SE HT RAO CENTENARY SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Centenary M. E. church presented a scene last night that will long linger in the minds of those who were fortunate enough to get inside the spacious edifice. The occasion was the annual Christmas tree celebration of the Sunday school of that church. Long before 8 o'clock the large crowd began to arrive, and by the time the organ voluntary (which was the first number on the splendid programme) was rendered, every available space in the building was occupied, and a large number could not gain admittance.

The interior of the church was beautifully decorated, and this, with the bright smiles and happy voices of the children, made up a scene that can better be imagined than described. Mr. J. P. Grandy had charge of the programme, and Professor Eldredge presided at the organ. After the organ voluntary the scholars marched into the main body of the church from the Sunday school room, keeping time with a pretty march. As soon as the school was seated the entertainment began.

The following was the programme rendered:

Just after the infant class had finished their chorus a pleasant surprise was thrust upon the pastor, the Rev. W. H.
Edwards. Mr. Edwards was called to the stage and was presented with a handsome solid gold hunting watch.
The Rev. Mr. Rawlings, former pastor of the church, made the presentation speech, which was very feelingly responded to by Mr. Edwards.
A large number of the scholars were the recipients of presents from their teachers. The entire programme was admirably rendered, several of the participants receiving encores.

ENTERTAINMENTS TO COME.

A Christmas festival for the children will be held at St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Lambert's Point, this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.
